LATE NEWS NOTES.

It is learned that the President has determined to send to the Senate the name of Corkhill for United States Atorney for the District of Columbia. The stockholders of the National Fair Association have decided to increase their stock from $50,000 to $100,000. They also adopted by-laws for their

The vote in Toronto, Canada, Monday, on the grant of $10,000 for the relief of the Irish sufferers, resulted in its defeat, as follows: For the grant 2,302, against it 4,279.

The New York Assembly Republican caucus at Albany, Monday night, unanimously nominated General George H. Sharpe, of Ulster, for Speaker. The Democrats nominated John Shanley, of Kings. The steamer Fisher, the mail boat between Pensacola and Freeport, Fla.,

has burst her boiler, killing Captain Watson and one other person, and mortally scalding the engineer. Mrs. Grey, now in jail at Sherbroke, Canada, with her husband, has con-fessed to the murder of Thomas Mulligan, whose body was found burned in his shanty near Quebec, December The New York Sun states that First Lieutenant and Brevet Major Abram G. Verplank is to be court-martialed on charges of inebriety while on duty and the breaking of his parole. The Baltimore sub-treasury on Satrday received $100,000 in gold coin fresh from the mint. It was in two kegs, each weighing two hundred pounds, making a total of four hundred pounds of gold.

An Italian girl eight years old, liv-ing on Frederick street, Baltimore, was born with six fingers on each hand and seven toes on each foot. Surgeons yes-terday amputated two toes of one foot and one from the other. The little girl was practically web-footed.

Considerable excitement has been caused in Albany, N. Y., by the removal of some of the poles of the American Union Telegraph Company by persons on whose premises they were erected. Arrests have been made and the matter is now in the court. The prisoners in the Franklin county (Ohio) jail made a break for liberty at o'clock Monday evening, just after the new sheriff had assumed charge, and nine escaped through the entrancedoor. James Herrill, alias Kerr, indicted for murder in the first degree, and J. W. Dodge, indicted for stabbing, are among the missing. Two hundred laborers on the extension of the Virginia Midland railroad from Orange Court-House to Charlottesville struck Monday for an in crease of wages to one dollar per day. The road, which is to be thirty-one miles in length, is under contract to be finished July 1st. The Cairo and Vincennes railroad was sold at Springfield, Ill., Monday, in pursuance of a decree of the United States Court. It was purchased by Joseph W. Drexel and C. E. Traey, of New York, trustees for the bondholders, for the sum of $2,000,000, the purchasers assuming the liabilities for receiver's certificates and claims allowed upon intervening petitions for labor and supplies furnished.

Stephen R. Richards, cashier of the Commercial National Bank of Syra cuse, N. Y., which failed December 13, 1878, was arrested Monday, charged with embezzling, abstracting and misappropriating funds of the bank; also with perjury in swearing to reports to gave bail for examination on the 17th

It is stated in Philadelphia, on the authority of Colonel Thomas A. Scott, that the question of awarding the right of way over the telegraph wires of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company has not yet been definitely settled. Colonel Scott says that the negotiations between the Telegraph Company and the Pennsylvania Railroad Company, for the right of way, are in progress and will probably be settled on Saturday.

President D. T. Porter, of the taxing district government of Memphis, Tenn., has tendered his resignation to the Governor in consequence of radical differ-ences with the majority of the legislative council on sanitary measures. The immediate cause of his action was the passage on its first reading yesterday of an amendment practically repealing the ordinance requiring the establishment of earth closets by April 1st.

As it has been found inexpedient to inaugurate the cental system at the New York Produce Exchange, the board of managers have adopted a resolution recommending postponement of the adoption of the system until such time as necessary national and State legislation can be obtained to put it into force, and the principal commercial exchanges agree upon the time for simultaneous action.

The ex-chiefs of the Cuban insurrection, Belisario Peralta and Remigio Almaguell, who recently surrendered to the authorities, left Havana for Spain Monday on the mail steamer. A heavy force has been sent to the province of Santiago de Cuba to operate against the mulatto chiet, Guillermon, who is now the only chief of any importance remaining in arms. The Voz de Cuba emphatically denies the rumor that Maceo and Vicente Garcia have landed on the island.

The Ohio Legislature met Monday. Governor Bishop's message shows that the financial condition of the State is about the same as last year, and the railroad interests are in a more prosperous condition than at any previous period. The Governor calls attention to the importance of improving the navigation of the Ohio river. Among the first bills introduced in the Legis lature was one for abolishing the present Congressional Districts and re-es-tablishing the boundaries which existed before the State was redistricted by the late Democratic legislature.

Dispatches from Augusta received late last night say Governor Garcelon has issued an order turning over all the property of the State to Major General Chamberlain for its protection. Members are elected with certificates and without and counted out; the members with all the contestants are admitted to the floor of both branches. At 9:45 A. M., the assembly was called to order by assistant clerk, Gibbs. John C. Talbot announced the drawing of seats. The Republicans are now generally participating. Mr. Staples, clerk of the House is present but does not act as Gibbs is presiding.

THE LATEST. The Republicans came in and took part in the drawing and every member responded except Mess. Voter, of Farmington, and Snow, of Skowhegan, and the fourteen in the disfranchised eities and towns. At 10.30 the Governor and Council attended in the Senate and administered the oath of office. The Senate was organized by a choice of the Senate was organized by a choice of the Democratic officers; the Republicans refraining from voting. In the House, Rev. Mr. Weller, of Biddeford, the representative elect, opened the session with prayer. Assistant Secretary. Gibbs, called the certified roll furnished by the Secretary of State, asking the members to respond as their names were called. All responded except Snow and Voter.

In the House assistant clerk Gibbs proceeded to call the certified roll of members. Mr. Hale took the floor and claimed that certain elected members of the House from the cities were not on the roll, and moved that they be included. This led to a lengthy speech from Mr. Hale, and also objections from the other side. Mr. Hale was ruled out of order by the assistant clerk, who refused to the thin assistant clerk, who refused to put his motion, where-upon the Republicans withdrew from further participation. A message was then sent to the Governor and Council stating that a quorum of the members of the House was present and ready to be qualified. Great excitement prevailed during Mr. Hale's remarks, and an uproarious applause followed. After notification to the Governor that a quorum was present the Governor appeared and pro-ceeded to qualify the members. He subsequently announced that seventy-six members, being a quorum, had taken the necessary oaths and were regularly and duly constituted the House of Representatives. This an-nouncement was received with wild applause from the outside. Governor Garcelon said he would now put into their hands the opinion of the Supreme Court as well as the petition of the gentlemen from certain cities claiming their seats, and invoked their careful consideration of the same. Three cheers were given for Governor Sarcelon, followed by prolonged hisses The quorum is made up of seventyfive Fusionists and one Republican— Eugene Hale. Lumberton Robesonian. Nineteen dollars was the amount of a collection taken up by the Lumberton Lodge Knights of Honor, at their meeting on Christmas night, for the benefit of the Oxford Orphan Asylum, which amount has been forwarded to

Superintendent Mills. It becomes our sad duty to chronicle the death of C. Von Glahn, which occurred at his residence in this town, on the 31st ult. after a lingering illness of nearly three months. Mr. Von Glahan was a native of Germany, but inmigrated to this country when quite a youth, settling in the city of Wilmington. He was a faithful soldier in the late war, and was orderly ser-geant of Rankin's Company A. 1st. North Carolina Battalion. There seems to be no doubt but that Peter Leitch will be hung next Friday. It will be remembered that after the Boston, Mass., Jan. 7.—A special dispatch from Augusta, Me., to the Journal says immense crowds are in attendance at the State Herodance $25, which bon a has never been made. The execution will be private as it should be.

A new postoffice, with Mr. A. D. H. Brown as postmaster, has been established at Philadelphus. An effort is also being made to establish an office at the Red Springs, which, we hope, will be successful.

Oxford Torchlight.

The matrimonial market in Granville was lively during the last month of 1879, the Register having issued ninetyfour licenses. With the exception of Wake, which issued ninety-six, we believe that Granville leads the State. Before Oxford can become a prosper-ous town, there must be erected a sur-

ous town, there must be erected a sur-pius number of cheap residences, there-by reducing rents. At present house rent is so enormously high as to deter many good people from settling in our midst. The larger portion of renters do not desire palaces, but comfortable cottages, such as can be let for from $60 to $100 per year.

Last Friday was the grand opening day in the Oxford tobacco market for 1880. The three large warehouses were filled to their utmost capacity, while many farmers were compelled to carry their tobacco home for the want of warehouse r oom. The sales were highly satisfactory, and the farmers returned to their homes highly elated with Oxford as a tobacco market—than which there is no better in North Carolina.

ENTARGEMENT OF THE COMMON SCHOOL SYSTEM.

A Bill for a New Educational System -The Plan for a National University.

Editor Raleigh News:

CHICAGO, III., Dec. 29, 1879 .- I believe that it is just as much the duty of the United States to educate civilians as it is to educate warriors and that it is only a question of time when the common school system of the different States will be supplemented by a National University. The inclosed plan for an institution of this kind may be imperfect, but it is the best I have been able to conceive and have placed it before the the U. S. Senate (Chicago) for con-

Reception of Grant in the South. Charleston News and Courier. Unless the Northern Stalwarts doubt the sincerity of the good people of Augusta and Beaufort, they must be convinced, against their will, that two Southern towns, at least, are thoroughly reconstructed. It was not possible for Augusta and Beaufert to go further than they did to prove to the world that the South is forgetful and forgiving.

General Grant did not traverse the continent, and does not visit the South as an ex-President of the United States, entitled as such to official courtesy and respect. It was as a successful soldier, as the man who crushed-out "the re-bellion," that General Grant was welcomed on the Pacific slope and in the Quaker City. No attempt was made to establish for him any claim to public affection or gratitude by reason of his services as President. The managers of the excursion knew that any such effort would be dangerous. It is not forgotten in the North and West that the grossest public scandals the country has known sprang out of the Grant administration. Thousands who were ready to renew their expressions of gratitude to the General who brought the war to a close would have refused to approve, or even condone, his acts as President Any such approval or con-

President. Any such approval or condonation would have been twisted into an expression of a desire to make him President again. As soldier, not as civilian, he makes his progress through the country. It was his own choice, or that of the persons who are engaged in his exploitation.

General Grant in coming to the South emphasizes this policy, in bringing with him General Sheridan, a man as d fferent from the ideal soldier as Gene al Grant is from the ideal President of a Constitutional Republic. The chosen companion of General Grant in his Southern tour is the barn-burner of the Valley of Virginia; the bily who branded the people of Louis and and Mississippi as "banditti," and invited the President so to proclaim them, and leave the rest to him. It is just five years ago that Ge eral Sheridan sent his infamous telegrams to Secretary Belknap. The answer swiftly came on January 6, 4875: "The President and all of us have furl confidence, and thoroughly approve your course." Nothing is wanting on General Grant's part to show that he comes to the South as a soldier, and that barrack-room methods and parade-ground rules are as dear ods and parade-ground rules are as dear to him as ever.

Is there anything in all this to entitle General Grant to public hospitality in the South? As ex-President he expects nothing, and he is eatitled to nothing, for he was not the President of the whole people. As the Conqueror of the South he surely has no claim upon our consideration. Yet in Beaufort he is received as though he were Washington or Lee in one, and in Augusta he is told by an influential newspaper that "the representatives of the New South "extend cordial greeting to the Con-"queror of the "Old." Time has indeed brought its revenges, when Gendeed brought its revenges, when General Grant is made welcome by Southerners because he is their Conqueror.

erners because he is their Conqueror. They who can swallow this need not strain at Sheridan. And they do not! We have no desire to rekindle sectional animosity, or to enrage any Southern heart by dwelling upon the memories of Confederate days. No newspaper in the South has been more zealous than the News and Courier in the endeavor to bring about true pacification and real reunion. No newspaper is more anxious to make this country one in sentiment and indivisible in fortune. But there is nothing to gain, for any cause, by toadying and adulation. Give Honor to whom Honor is due; and so mark the distinction between those who have served their country, which is our country, with unselfish devotion and earnest patriotism, and those whose public conduct is ism, and those whose public conduct is narrow and selfish, or brutal and capricious. To act otherwise is to say that the South does not appreciate the difference between a Lincoln and a Grant, or between a Hancock and a Sheridan. It is to say that all men are alike to her, if they have the power to do her harm, or if anything can be made out of them! This is not Southern sentiment; them! This is not Southern sentiment; it is not American sentiment. The respect of our quondam foes we have enjoyed, because they believed that, in war, the Southern people were honest, sincere and self-sacrificing. These Grant receptions, if they continue, will convince the whole country that the Southern people are disingeneous or Southern people are disingenuous, or are wanting in a nice sense of what is

The following special reached us yesterday, and speaks for itself:

ATLANTA, Ga., Jan. 2, 1880.—It is corrently reported throughout the city that Governor A. H. Colquitt has telegraphed President Hayes tendering him 80,000 Georgians who will respond to his call on three days' notice, to go to Maine for the purpose of preserving to Maine for the purpose of preserving law and order. Intense excitement prevails and the local military are hiding out.

B. F. S.

This is as it should be, and we are glad that Georgia has an executive so ready to vindicate the integrity of our glorious Union, which, in the language of the immortal Jackson, "Must, and by the Eternal, shall be preserved."

A reporter of the Constitution called on Governor Colquitt to discover whether or not the current report had any foundation. The Governor was astonished to see the item, and aston-ished to hear that any such thing had been currently reported. He said that he had never made any such offer, and had never thought of making any such offer; that the subject had never been suggested to him, and had never sugrested itself to him. He had never heard of such a rumor.

Serious Cutting Affray. Wilmington Review, 6th.

A serious cutting affray, and one which will probably terminate fatally to the wounded man, took place last night in a negro cabin at the Belvidere plantation near this city. George Everitt and his half brother, Bob Everitt, became involved in an altercation about some meal when they fell to blows, and during the fisticuff Bob ripped out a knife and severely cut George in the abdomen. As soon as the wounded man cried out he was cut, Bob fled. The wounded man was put in a beat and brought to this city for in a boat and brought to this city for medical attendance. Being late when he arrived and not knowing how to proceed, he was hauled about first from one place to another until he was left in the guard house. This morning he was carried to Dr. W. W. Lane, who rendered the necessary medical aid. The knife used is supposed to have had a blade about three inches long. The wound is about four inches in length and quite deep, the omealum commonly and quite deep, the omentum commonly called "leaf fat," having been cut through and left protruding from the wound. He is now lying in Dr. Lane's office. As he has no money to hire a room, and there being no hospital or place of accommodatin for cases of this kind in the city, Dr. Lane has permitted him to remain there rather than turn him out on the streets to die.

Week of Prayer. At the meeting of the Pastors on yesterday, Saturday afternoon, six of the churches were represented, it was unanimously agreed to observe the week of prayer in their churches by union prayer meetings on each evening of the week, and thus unite with God's people throughout the world in sup plicating common blessings. The Uni-Alliance have adopted the following topics as suitable subjects for exhorta-tion and intercession on the successive days of meeting: Thursday, Jan. 8.—Prayer for Christian education; for the family, and in-stitutions of learning; for Sunday schools and Christian Associations.

Friday, Jan. 9.—Prayer for nations, rulers and people; for peace and religious liberty.

Saturday, Jan. 10.—Prayer for Home and Foreign Missions; for the outpouring of the Spirit upon all flesh and the conversion of the world.

The meetings will be held in the following order.

"BOB-SLEDDING."

THE WINTER SPORT OF DEAD.

WOOD BELLES. The Construction of a "Bob" ... 1,000 Miles a Minuteon a Down

Grade.

"Bob-sledding" by moonlight, eight or ten on a "bob," has been the epidemie tun in Deadwood during the past week. Everybody has it, and children ery for it. No dignity withstands it. no prim sense of propriety is stiff enough to resist it. Ladies, gentlemen, boys, girls and miscellaneous urchins, pinks of decorum and romping hoydens, all "bob" with the very wildness of jolly enthusiasm.

Dignified city reader, did you ever see a "bob?" No? What, never? Then your life has been wasted. Fancy two iron-bound sleds ten feet apart, with a smooth, strong plank, fifteen inches wide, lashed on top of them, with a cross-piece on the front end for the feet of the conductor, the steerer stradding the plank just over the hind one. That's a "bob."

Imagine a steep mountain-side of ice

Imagine a steep mountain-side of ice and frozen snow, slick as if it had been greased, and half a mile down. Eight, ten or a dozen ladies and gentlemen all seated on the plank, horseback fashion, clothes-pin style. Letgo! Track! track! And in the twinkling of an eye you are flying downward sixty miles' an hour. Your eyes pop out. Your hat flies off. Your false hair blows to Kamschatka. Your crockeryware teeth are whisked out through the back of your neck. Streams of fire flash from the ley track at every bound. You hold your breath, and cling like grim death to the plank and your next neighbor. You shout. You scream. You laugh in wildest glee with every hair on end. A twist in the road. A crash. Ten thousand shrieks in a pin-point of time. And ladies, gentlemen and youngsters are rolling, tumbling, sliding, flying in every direction, but all down grade, one thousand miles a minute, with nothing for a sled. That riding on a "bob."

Frank Riggs, late of Paris and Wash-

Frank Riggs, late of Paris and Washington, but now of the Stand-by mine, exclaims: "By George it beats the world!" Miss Lizzie Sioan, of St. Louis, pronounces it "too perfectly splendid for anything!" Mrs. Dixon declares "it's just glorious!" Robert Goode, of St. Louis, in rhapsodies avers "it's as delightful as a novel; there's nothing like it!" Sweet little Miss Lizzie Fales says: "It's the best fun in the world!" Miss Addie McBrine, of St. Louis, thinks it awfully awful, but absolutely enchanting!" And the editor of the Pioneer bashfully feels to see if all his bones are in their places, and murmurs a big, big "Ditto" to all that the rest of them have said. With a gawky blush of shattered dignity and battered anatomy, he owns that he has been there too. been there too.

THE Lumberton Robesonian says: "Our own impression is that the Hon. Horatio Seymour is the most available man, for the time and the occasion."

THE proceedings of the Maine Vetern Association at a meeting held at Atlanta last October may prove of interest to some of our readers. It will be found on the first page.

THE Constitution is the name of new paper just started at Lincolnton. North Carolina is just booming with papers, and it is a good sign for the advancement of the State. If they all survive the people will be the better for it a year hence.

IT appears that Governor Colquitt did not tender the President the services of 80,000 Georgians to quell the Maine insurrection. The South has had enough of internecine tighting for some time to come. Let Blaine hire his substitutes where he did formerly.

THE New York Tribune publishes a directory of officers in the building of tall towyer fame. Lawyers and agents appear to fill the directory, and there isn't a single word about the gin mill down stairs. The Tribune had better amend the list and make it more reliable than the paper.

WHY certain scientists, so-called, together with a few journals desirous of obtaining circulation through notoriety, should still keep up the attacks on Mr. Edison, pronouncing his electric light a failure when his laboratory is open to the inspection of all and the idea has been proven successful, is singular. Mr. Edison, however, keeps on just the same and pays no attention to the howling of those who have been so vigorously prophesying that the experiments would end in failure because the formula was not laid down in obsolete works on electricity and kindred subjects.

WE have received a copy of the Galveston (Tex.) Daily News of the 29th ultimo, filled to overflowing with statements, comparative and otherwise, of the inexhaustible advantages that State offers to emigrants. It may be well enough for some to go there, especially if well provided with money; but we veuture the assertion that North Carolina can discount the Lone Star State. At different times citizens of this State have moved to Texas, and the cases are rare where they didn't get disgusted and come back as soon as they could raise money enough to travel with.

WE publish to-day a bill stated to have been "introduced into the United States Senate by Senator Emmett C. Fisher, of North Carolina, November As Congress did not mee until the first Monday in December, and as there is no United States Senator bearing the above name, we are at a loss to know what to make of it. The bill appears to be well enough in its way, and if carried through may be productive of good, provided there is no job behind it. It comes in such a curious way, however, that we give it publicity to elicit an expression in regard to it.

AT the time the arrests were made at Chattanooga of a gang of grave-robbers, followed so closely by the desccration of graves in a country cemetery near Atlanta, we intimated that the ghouls might turn their attention this way. And this has proven to be true. The Richmond papers state that they have reached Oakwood cemetery near that city, and have been conducting business on a large scale, as forty or more bodies have been stolen and sent to medical colleges. Of course there is a storm of indignation, but it is like locking the stable door after the steed is stolen. It behooves our people to take some action, or Raleigh will have a chance of being classed with those places that have lost their dead.

THOSE that remember Colonel Pat Donan will nndoubtedly be pleased to learn that the doughty gentleman has found his true field out on the borders of civilization. His fiery articles take well, and the Deadwood Evening Press speaks in the following terms of its contemporary, the Black Hills Pio-

The Pioneer appeared Sunday morning enlarged to eight columns to the page and printed with new type, and with a marked imprevement in its editorial character. Typographically it is up to the best standard, while editorially it exhibits a life, an independence and a vigor that it was noted for an en-tire absence of, before the change in the proprietorship. Colonel Donan is a ready and able writer, and his advent into the ranks of Black Hills journalists is an acquisition that will not only be of interest to the readers of the *Pio-*neer, but a benefit to the entire com-

ORDINARILY we prefer that our notices of advertisements shall find place on the local page; but when occasions arise when matters are brought to public attention which appeal directly not only to the interest but also to the sentiment of our people, we feel justified in departing from this rule. Such an occasion is presented by the contemplated lecture of Colonel W. J. Green, of Warren. The object to which its proceeds will be devoted in which every one of our citizens should and does feel interested. His subject is the character of the three great heroes whose names have made our age famous, Lee, Jackson and Sidney Johnston. That it will be treated in a masterly manner, none who know Colonel Green will doubt. We bespeak for him the large audience the cause he advocates and the merit of his essay deserve.

WATCHING the exodus movement and the large amount of suffering entailed on the colored race consequent to removing to a climate that does not accord with their constitutional idiosyncrasies, a pertinent suggestion is made by one of our western contemporaries that, as there are nearly seventeen million acres of public land open to purchase, or to acquirement, under the national homestead law, in the States of Alabama, Florida, Louisiana and Arkansas, a systematic effort should be made to dispose of it to the negroes who desire to own land, and thus relieve those who wish to better their condition from the risks and hardships of migrating to Indiana, Kansas and other Northern States. A fair proportion of these lands is said to be as fertile and capable of cultivation in all Southern products as any land in that section, and, if it is true that one principal reason of the discontent which prevails in some sections is that the planters decline to sell them any land, this suggestion is worthy of serious consideration, as being a practical measure by which to solve the difficult labor problems involved in the negro exodus.

GRANT IN THE SOUTH.

The reception accorded to General Grant in the Southern cities through which he has passed has given a fresh impetus to the "third term boom" among the Northern friends of the General, and they look with joyful eyes upon the prospect of a general support by the ex-Confederates. Never was a political faction more mistaken. The cordiality extended to him would be repeated if Mr. Hayes or any other gentlemen that has occupied the Presidential chair, or, in fact, any gentleman of national fame and reputation. But the traveling correspondent of the Chicago Inter-Ocean makes a big thing out of the jaunt, and in return has evoked a perfect storm of newspaper wrath. The Savannah Morning News plainly says:

The reception here was in no sense a manifestation of popular admiration for General Grant. It is but simple justice to the great majority of our citizens to say that the formal public courtesies extended to him and his party while here, were dictated solely by the maxims of hospitality and civility, and while the demonstration, such as it was, afforded no indication of the popular sentiment, it was equally destitute of political significance.

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle intimates that in the reception there was nothing more than a "dinner-giving" affair; and other papers follow in the same strain and state that no political significance could be attached thereto. The Charleston News and Courier, in an article which we print elsewhere, takes strong position against Grant's political and Presidential predilections.

The fact that Don Cameron, of Pennsylvania, and Thomas B. Keogh, of this State, officer the National Republican committee is cited as evidence that the Grant and Settle ticket is to be kept hot, and that the former has not by any means given up his desire for another four years' lease of the White House. This view of the case is curiously corroborated in a special to the Chicago Times from Atlanta:

Quite a sensation has been created here by what is construed as an attack upon General Sherman by General rant, in remarks attributed to the latter, telegraphed here from South Carolina. General Grant is reported as saying, in conversation with Judge Mackey, something which reflec s very much upon General Sherman. Pointing to the blackened chimney of a half-burned house along the route of his journey in South Carolina, General

Grant said:
"That is one of General Sherman's Judge Mackey said: "I am glad to know that you left a very few of these monuments during the war."

"That is true," said Grant, "There was one private house burned by my orders during the war, and that was one where water was refused to wounded soldiers. In all my campaign around Richmond there was not a single house burned except by accident or in violation of orders."

This remark of General Grant's is construed in Chicago into meaning a great deal. The fact that he is known to say but very little that he has not well weighed in his mind, and that he should have seemingly gone out of his way to make such remarks about General Sherman's course, is thought to be a new way of calling the attention of the Southern people to the opposite course pursued by himself. Whether or no this indirect comparison will benefit him in the end we cannot say, but opine not. The Times is of the opinion, though, that it will, as it states, mentioning no name, of course, that-A Southern gentleman, in speaking of this reported conversation, said he did not know of anything that Grant could have said that would have made such a favorable impression upon the South. That Grant had not destroyed private property in the South was a fact that never had been called to his special attention, and now that it was so called it was very clear to his mind that the statement had good founda-tion, and that alone would go a long way in adding to the fervor of Genera Grant's reception in the South. Almost every word that Grant utters in the South will be carefully considered this point. at this point, for the reason that all politicians here believe that this Southern tour is simply a bit of skillful campaigning.

POLITICAL NOTES.

New York politics are pretty closely watched all over the country because the State must be carried by the successful Presidential candidate. Evidence is not wanting that the Democratic party here has come to this conclusion, too, and is trying to recover from the consequences of its deplora-ble and disastrous blunders.

A correspondent of the New York Sun, at Harrisburg, Pa., notes that the Germans there are opposed to a third term on constitutional principles.

The New York Sun thinks Sanford E. Church would be a stronger candidate than Seymour, but in these hard-money days it might not be easy for Church to explain that greenback speech of his ten years ago or so. The Philadelphia Times is nearly the only paper in the country which is making a straight-out fight against a third term on the sole ground that it would be a dangerous breach of sound constitutional practice.

Representative Updegraff, of Ohio, says Garfield will be elected Senator, and that the Republicans of Ohio are solid for Sherman for President. He says the reports that there will be a divided Legislature are not well founded, and that Sherman will have the solid support of his State, whether Grant is a candidate or not.

The Washington Sunday Herald blossoms out with a Hancock boom, a fact which is chiefly interesting from the fact that J. N. Burritt, its editor, is the intimate political friend of Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania.

Professor Green, a distinguished allopathic physician, wrote to the Medical Journal to the effect that after all other means had failed he sent for the Kidney Cure, (now Safe Kidney and Liver Cure), and to his astonishment cured a serious case of Bright's Disease by administering it, and afterward found it equally beneficial in other cases. He advised his brother physicians to use it in preference to anything else for kidney diseases.

I dispensed with all physicians two years ago, believing they did me no good. The CUTICURA has stopped this unsatisfactory expense—even if it vere necessary and I had the courage any longer to follow their advice—and brought the long-looked-for cure and happiness.

April 1st last, I began the use of Cuticura, which was immediately successful in my case, entirely curing me. I have not had a clean scalp for 15 years until the use of Cuticura entirely healed it and left it clean and healthy. The other parts of my body were affected in a more aggravated form, but are now completely heal d. I believe myseif completely cured. I shall continue the UTICURA RESOLVENT as directed, for its wonderful action on the stomach and bowels and cooling influence on the blood. It is indorsed by the direct personal testimony of men of national fame and strictness of speech. It is not too much to say that no medicine ever had such support in its favor as a specific. The word of any one of the eminent divines who underwrite this antidote to dyspepsia has deserved weight. In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chlorosis, Anæmia, Nervous and Muscular Debility, Nervous and Sick Headache, Dysmenorrhœa, Menorrhagia, Amenor-rhœa, diseases of the Kidneys and Blad-der and such like organic or functional disturbances, I know of no remedy upon which I can rely with more certainty of satisfactory results than the "Seven Springs Mass."

I have found no one single remedy to yield such satisfactory results as the "Seven Springs Mass." In the treatment of Dyspepsia, Chronic Diarrhœa, Anamia, Chlorosis, and for Chronic Eczema, I find it invaluable, associated with appropriate topical treatment.

GEO. T. HARRISON, M. D., New York City.

From my experience with the "Iron and Alum Mass," I believe it will prove the best medicine we have in use, for G. M. D. PATTERSON, M. D., Eaglewood, Texas.
